SOCIAL CHATTER AND HOME TALK

WALKING parties are all the rage just at present, and last Sunday a particularly jolly one took the direction of the Pail and plucked many miles from that historic spot. Punchbowl, around Diamond Head and even from town to the beach are chosen paths in which to lose that superabundance of flesh, or harden those flabby muscles. Even tennis is not half so popular just now as walking, and at certain times of the day one can see mysteriously veiled humanity all on walking bent. This is certainly a healthful fad, and one to be encouraged.

Mrs. Herman Focke was the hostess on Monday of a beautiful luncheon at her Nuuanu valley residence. There were three tables each decorated in yellow, pink and lavender. Ribbons of the three colors were suspended from the chandelier in the center of the room and the pink, yellow and lavender ribbons were attached to the different tables, thus carrying out the particular color scheme in a very artistic manner. Dishes roses were at the pink table, while yellow cornucopias made the yellow table most effective. At the lavender table were lilacs of the same shade and violets. Much laughter and chit-chat combined with the delicious luncheon, which one can always be assured of at the Fockes, made the affair a successful one. Many of the guests stayed on for bridge. Among those present were Mrs. F. M. Swamy, Mrs. Francis Gay, Mrs. George Carter, Mrs. Achilles, Mrs. Dunning, Mrs. Rees, Mrs. F. Klamp, Mrs. Rodiek, Mrs. S. G. W. W. der, Mrs. Paul Isenberg, Mrs. Will Kinney, Mrs. George Potter, Mrs. Charles Cooper, Mrs. Clive Davies, Mrs. George Davies, Misses Ward, Margaret and Cordelia Walker.

Of interest is the following clipping from the Call: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Josselyn and their daughters will remain in town until July 1, when they hope to be able to take possession of their new home in San Mateo. This is the first summer of several years that they have not taken a trip abroad, the double reason of Miss Gertrude's approaching marriage and the building of the new home keeping them here. The San Mateo home is one of the handsomest in the little town and is built entirely in the Mexican style.

Mrs. Lansdale spent some time here and is very well known socially. The Call says: Mrs. Philip Van Horne Lansdale, Miss Laura Hamilton, Miss Alexandra Hamilton and Miss Bertha Sidney Smith will leave this week for New York, sailing at once for Europe where all four will spend the summer months. Mrs. Lansdale and Miss Smith may remain abroad indefinitely, but Miss Hamilton and Miss Alexandra will return to town before the opening of the winter season.

Miss May Colburn was hostess at a luncheon on Thursday last, her guests being a group of society women and girls from this side of the bay. After the luncheon, guests and hostess enjoyed a game of bridge before returning to town.—Call.

Miss May Colburn was one of Mrs. Harry Macfarlane's bridesmaids and spent several weeks here.

Mrs. Charles Sherry, wife of Rear Admiral Sherry, was hostess at a luncheon on Saturday last. The affair took place at the Peninsula hotel where the Sherrys have secured apartments for the summer.—S. F. Call.

Cards have been received as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Rosens request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Marietta, to Mr. Paul Anderson Dismore, on Wednesday evening, June the twenty-fourth, one thousand nine hundred and eight at half after eight o'clock. St. Paul's church, Oakland, California.

land, California.

Miss Hosens is the pretty girl who visited Miss Bertha Young not so very long ago.

At Mrs. Henry Waterhouse's tea last week in honor of Mrs. Wood, those in the receiving line were Mrs. A. Fuller, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Galt, Mrs. Lowrey, Mrs. Richards and Mrs. Alonzo Gartley. Mrs. A. Lewis presided at the tea table, assisted by Mrs. Ross, who poured coffee. Among others assisting were the Misses Waterhouse (3), Nora Sturgeon, Walker, Alexander and Mrs. Albert Waterhouse.

This has been a busy week at Haleiwa Hotel, especially June 11th, the Hawaiian holiday. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kennedy organized an auto party for a round-the-island trip, which is becoming popular. Twenty-seven were in their party and it took seven machines to carry them. They reached Haleiwa Hotel at 2 p. m. A very pretty dinner table was set for their party and they returned at 9 p. m. to Honolulu. There were about eighty guests at Haleiwa Hotel that day. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kennedy's party was composed of: Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. F. Renton, Prof. and Mrs. Griffith, Mrs. C. Hedemann, Mr. C. K. Hedemann, Miss Alice Hedemann, Miss Erling Hedemann, Mr. Edmund Hedemann, Mr. C. Clowe, Mr. Harold Castle, Mr. J. A. McCandless, Miss Jessie K. Kennedy, Mr. J. D. Kennedy, Mr. Stanley Kennedy, Mr. Lewis Renton, Mr. Allan Renton, Mr. F. L. Hoogs, Mr. Allan Lowrey, Mr. J. C. McCandless, Miss Irene Fisher, Miss G. Webster, Miss Foster.

A dance was given at the Young hotel Wednesday evening, June 10, by some of Honolulu's young men. Those present were: Chaperones—Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Olsen, Misses Ethel Spalding, Grace Webster, Irene Fisher, Marion Waterhouse, Anna Tucker, Sadie Towle, Juliette Perrin, Violet Damon, Ray Bell, Constance Restarick, Bella McCarriston, Blanche Soper, Alice Macfarlane, Eleanor Waterhouse, Cordie Carden, Florence and Serina Bland, and Sarah Lucas. Messrs. Derwent Kennedy, W. L. Warren, R. V. Mitchell, Stanley Kennedy, E. W. Sutton, G. H. Whitney, S. Bickerton, W. A. Greenwell, C. Livingston, W. L. Castle, Art Mackintosh, Jack Young, F. S. Warren, W. Carden, W. Rycroft, Gustav Schaefer, Robert McCarriston, Alfred Cooper. The dancing lasted from 8:30 p. m. until 1 a. m., the new barn dance being a unique feature. The music was furnished by the Kaal orchestra.

One of the agreeable events of the week was the "at home" given by Mrs. Howard Hitchcock, of Judd street, on Monday in honor of Mrs. Arthur Wood, who is being so much entertained, and Miss Lillian Sargent, of New York. Mrs. Charles Cooper assisted in receiving and Mrs. Gartley met everybody at the door. Tea tables on the lanai and dining room were

MISS PHOEBE K. HEEN

Who Will Be the Valedictorian of the Class of 1908, Oahu College

Miss Edith Jones of San Rafael and Mr. George Cooper, who is connected with the English diplomatic service in Siam. Miss Jones is a sister of Mrs. Robert Renton Hind (Eleanor Jones), who since her marriage in February, has resided in Honolulu, and the authoress of that very clever story, "Sallie Maud in Siam," which was written after a delightful trip through the Orient, where she first met Mr. Cooper. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Everybody is looking forward to Mrs. Mary Gunn's dancing party this evening at the Moana hotel at 8 o'clock. The tickets, which are open to the public, are only one dollar. After 10 o'clock there will be general dancing. Mrs. Gunn has some clever little ones who will sing new songs and give new dances.

Scott R. Gibbs, E. K. Arnold, Richard Horrigan, A. E. Murphy, James Phelan, Geo. C. Potter, Perry Carter, Wainwright, William Warren, Judge Newman, Jas. A. Wilder, Henry Thompson, Mr. Webb, William Ingram, Mr. Connors, R. P. Roberts, W. E. Kerr, Henry Wellars, G. C. Schaefer, Arthur Payne, L. S. Connors, Mills, S. Wight, Dallas Wainwright, Miss Nellie McLain, Cynthia Garrison, Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. McLennan.

The engagement is announced of Miss Edith Jones of San Rafael and Mr. George Cooper, who is connected with the English diplomatic service in Siam. Miss Jones is a sister of Mrs. Robert Renton Hind (Eleanor Jones), who since her marriage in February, has resided in Honolulu, and the authoress of that very clever story, "Sallie Maud in Siam," which was written after a delightful trip through the Orient, where she first met Mr. Cooper. No definite date has been set for the wedding.

Probably Moanalua golf links were as popular on Kamehameha Day as any part of the countryside. There were many excellent games in progress and the friendly luncheon basket much in evidence. At the Moana Hotel crowds of people took their lunch on the beach and toyed with Neptune. Tea baskets also were often seen and the friendly little tea parties looked very cozy. The park and Country Club were well patronized and there were many parties of a private character.

Mrs. William E. Taylor, who is still in the hospital, will take a six months' trip to the Coast as soon as her health admits. She will visit her father in San Francisco and probably go on to Colorado Springs. This will be an excellent opportunity of renting the artistic little cottage in Bates street, which is so desirable from every point of view.

Society with greatest regret hears of the serious condition of Mrs. Hyde, who is now at the St. Xavier. Her daughters, Mrs. Alexander Garcean and Mrs. Hyde-Smith, are continually at her side, while Mrs. Camilo Martin, who was Miss Fanny Hyde, is hastening home from Europe to join the anxious members of the family.—Call.

Mrs. Hyde has since died and thus many families are in mourning, among them being Mrs. Harold Dillingham, who was a granddaughter of Mrs. Carmella Hyde.

Mrs. Charles Cooke, who entertains so well, was the hostess of a large buffet lunch at Luakaha not long since. The profusion of flowers and ferns were greatly admired. Among the guests were Mrs. F. M. Swamy, Mrs. Dunning, Mrs. Wadhams, Mrs. McKinnon, Mrs. M. Cooke, Mrs. Richard Cooke, Mrs. A. Cooke, Mrs. Rees, Mrs. Allan White, Mrs. Walter Brinckerhoff, Mrs. H. Macfarlane, Jr., Mrs. Davies, Mrs. Andrew Fuller, Mrs. Mott-Smith, and many others.

Major and Mrs. Dunning gave a dinner at Fort Shafter not long ago at which were present Mrs. Ewell, Major and Mrs. Wadhams, Mrs. McKinnon. Mrs. Ewell is a guest of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Lyon, and she will visit Mrs. Dunning at Fort Shafter also.

Mrs. Bickerton and Mr. Spencer Bickerton have gone to their Waikiki residence for a few weeks. This beautiful place, so conveniently located, is for sale, and fortunate indeed will be the one who purchases the property. A shady walk of palms leads directly from the house to the beach and the grounds are a mass of tropical verdure. The house, a bungalow with large airy rooms, is conveniently built. The grounds are not too extensive for even an old man to look after, and the tea-house and boat-house add greatly to the old fashioned charm of the place. The price asked is very low.

Next Friday evening Miss De l'Artigue's dancing class for children, which meets at Mrs. von Holt's for the last time this season, will give a cotillion, the figures of which will be very pretty. Refreshments and dances will be served. Miss de l'Artigue has labored faithfully and well, the class showing good results. Among the families who send their little ones to her are Mrs. George Carter, Mrs. Schaefer, Mrs. White, Mrs. J. O. Young, Mrs. Galt, Mrs. Holloway and Mrs. von Holt's five.

There was a most interesting recital at the Priory on Friday afternoon by the pupils of the school. Next Tuesday a flower fete will be given at which a queen will be chosen, and in the Sunday school room there will be an exhibition of the drawing and sewing which has been accomplished during the past term.

while here, Mrs. Moller was prominent in church and social circles.—Maui News.

Mrs. Cleghorn, the niece of Governor Cleghorn, departs for Sydney the first of next month. Mrs. Cleghorn has made many friends while here and her departure is greatly regretted.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Forster are enjoying their outing at the Cooper bungalow on Tantalus. They will return the first of next week to the Consulate on King street.

Judge and Mrs. F. M. Hatch and daughter are to spend part of the summer in the Adirondacks. They may possibly return to Honolulu in August.

Rev. and Mrs. Westervelt and child have gone to Hilo for six weeks. They will spend a portion of the time at the Volcano House.

Mr. J. R. Daggett's pretty bungalow at Kaimuki is about finished. He expects to return in the autumn with his nieces to occupy it.

Mrs. Walbridge and Miss Annie Parts are at the Davies' residence on Tantalus. Miss Parts, who has been so ill is fast regaining her health.

Former Governor Carter and family included Mrs. Achilles and daughter, have gone to Kailua, their beach residence, for a few weeks.

Mrs. Elizabeth Freeth, announces the engagement of her daughter, Dorothy Mariel, to Mr. W. H. Campbell, of the First National Bank.
